Ref. 2006102 – Software Engineer

Location: Coimbra/Lisbon

Date of availability: 1st February 2006

Contact: jobs@criticalsoftware.com

Description
Critical Software, a software engineering company with a strong presence in the international markets and high growth profile looks for a software engineer to integrate a team working in Coimbra/Lisbon, Portugal.

Responsibilities

- Software design, development and testing.
- Graphical User Interface development using COCOA.

Qualifications and Experience

- Engineering academic degree or relevant professional experience;
- Must have 2 years (minimum) of professional experience working with COCOA.
- Must have good technology skills in MAC OS.
- Very good technology skills across application software (including OOP) and UML.
- Desirable to have awareness of software Quality Management practices.