Upgrade^m is a Human Resources Outsourcing and Consulting company specialized in Information Technologies and Telecommunication industries. We are currently more than 900 consultants, working on different projects with our multinational and national technological partners. We present solutions such as resource Outsourcing for medium to long term projects, Time & Materials, and Business Process Outsourcing.

Regarding our partnership with a prestigious provider of dependable technologies, we are currently looking for:

Test Automation Engineer (m/f)

Porto

Job Description:

- Design and review test plans, test cases, scripts, or procedures;
- Develop automated testing scripts, automate manual test cases with the goal of 100% efficiency on automation.

Job Profile:

- Computer Science degree or equivalent;
- Experience in Java programming;
- Experience with Selenium WebDriver, Robot Framework or any other test automation framework (not based on record and play);
- 3 or more year's experience in Software Quality Assurance, including reviewing test plans, write test scripts, and validation of software products;
- ISTQB/CAT certification is not mandatory but will be taken in consideration;
- Good problem solving and good communications skills;
- Strong relationship skills, work well in a team environment, task oriented, able to handle multiple tasks simultaneously and quality commitment are also required competencies;
- Fluency in English.

This is an opportunity to develop your skills and career on a multicultural setting, integrated in a multinational project, where you will be provided initial and continuous training and an attractive salary package.

 Go to www.upgradem.pt, and insert the reference "080_UPG_00414_CD" in the "Keyword" field. Next, click on "Answer", provide your data and attach your CV.